Franz Langer was advisor on social questions.
He and the delegate for youth organisation were the only advisors of the Rumanian government who kept their jobs for quite some time. Langer originated from the Hitler Youth. He had been "Gebietsfuhrer" (district super leader), and th at is the highest rank of the German youth movement under the Reich's youth leader. In the Hitler Youth Langer worked on social problems. He initiated the national efficiency contests among apprentices later developed by Axman on a grand scale;
